

86. Interlocutory orders by Tribunal.- Where an appeals made to the Tribunal under section 82 or where the Tribunal calls for the record of a case under section 84, it may, in order to prevent the ends of justice being defeated, make such interlocutory order pending the decision of the appeal or revision as it may deem fit.

87. Powers of revision of Registrar and Government.- (1) The Registrar may of his own motion or on application call for and examine the record of any officer subordinate to him not being an officer exercising the powers of the Registrar, and the Government may of their own motion or on application call for and examine the record of the Registrar including any officer exercising the powers of the Registrar, in respect of any proceeding, not being a proceeding in respect of which an appeal to the Tribunal is provided by section 82, to satisfy himself or themselves as to the regularity of such proceedings, or the correctness, legality of propriety of any decision passed or order made thereon, and if, in any case it appears to the Registrar or the Government that any such decision or order should be modified, annulled, reversed or remitted for reconsideration, he or they may pass orders accordingly:

Provided that every application to the Registrar or the Government for the exercise of the powers under this section shall be preferred within three months from the date on which the proceeding, decision or order to which the application relates was communicated to the applicant.

(2) No order prejudicial to any person shall be passed under subsection (1) unless such person has been given an opportunity or making his representation.

(3)The Registrar or the Government, as the case may be, may suspend the execution of any decision or order pending the exercise of his or their power under sub-section (1) in respect thereof..

(4)The Registrar or the Government may award costs in proceedings under this section to be paid either out of the funds of the society or by such party to the application for revision as the Registrar or the Government may deem fit.
